

UNIVERSITY OF THE THIRD AGE LONDON REGION

CREATIVE WRITING STUDY DAY

THURSDAY 19TH APRIL 2012
10.30 (for 11) – 4.p.m

AT: THE LIBRARY, CANADA WATER, SE16

This new building designed by Piers Gough opened on 28 November 2011 and is worth a visit in its own right!

A DAY FOR ASPIRING, SELF-PUBLISHED AND PUBLISHED WRITERS

Older writers CAN be successfully published – and the short story is coming into its own again. Our excellent speakers will offer ample opportunities to ask questions and there will be time to exhibit your own (or your group's) novels, anthologies, stories, etc.

Facilitator: Maggie Smith, U3A National Adviser, Creative Writing.
Speakers: Catherine King; a 'popular fiction' author writing novels set in nineteenth century Yorkshire. www.catherineking.info
Ian Skillicorn; Director, National Short Story Week, founder of Short story Radio www.nationalshortstoryweek.org.uk.

Fee: £15 – includes a buffet lunch.
The library is next to Canada Water Station (there is a lift.) See reverse for directions.

.....
APPLICATION FORM: (London Region Creative Writing Study Day 19th April 2012)

Places are limited and priority must be given to London Regional U3As

Name: U3A

Address:.....
.....
.....

Tel: Email:

Please reserve me a place. I would like a vegetarian/gluten free lunch.

Cheques for £15 payable to London Region
To: Maggie Smith, U3A Subject Adviser, 41, Manor Mount, London SE23 3PY
You will not hear until shortly before the day unless there are no places available.

If more than one person is applying PLEASE complete separate forms.

CANADA WATER LIBRARY

DIRECTIONS:

TUBE: Jubilee line or London Overground.
Take exit marked 'Lower Road, Shops.'
Library on the left at the top of the stairs (there is a lift)

BUS: 1, 47, 188, 199, 225, 381, C10, P12
Library is opposite the bus station